JUSTICE GILLESPIE'S COURT.

Joe Schrimpf's Case Disposed of—Other Criminal Matters. Joe Schrimpf, who lives in the East End, was before Justice Gillespie last evening charged with profane swearing and drunkenness. He was fined $1 and costs in each case, and in default of payment was committed to jail for twenty days. But there was something behind these charges. Schrimpf has been in the habit of getting drunk and abusing his wife, and Justice Gillespie took occasion to warn him, saying that they now had one man in jail, who the other day while frenzied by liquor took his wife's life. The prisoner seemed to be very penitent and promised to reform.

Grace Porter, who was arrested the other day on a charge of keeping a house of bad repute in that notorious quarter, Alley C, gave bond for her appearance at the next term of court and was released.

Grace Martin, an inmate of another house of bad fame in Alley C, was arrested yesterday on the charge of profane swearing and loitering. The complainant was Ethel King, a proprietress of a house in that neighborhood. Grace will have her trial to-day.

The Breisch murder case, which was set for yesterday, was postponed until this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE MOGULIANS.

Their Entertainment Will Be Preceded by a Street Parade. The "bungle" of the Ancient and Adhesive Order of Mogulians, which takes place at the Grand Opera House tomorrow evening, promises to be the greatest fun-making entertainment ever given under the auspices of that order in Wheeling. It will be preceded by a grand street demonstration, and it is said it will be notable as one of the largest and most original that has been seen here. It will be participated in by the visiting representatives of the A. O. U. W. from all over West Virginia, who will be here Wednesday to make preliminary arrangements for the coming separation of West Virginia from the Pennsylvania jurisdiction of the A. O. U. W.

M'KINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD.

In 1890 William McKinley was burned in effigy in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1894 William L. Wilson was burned and dined in London because he is the author of a free trade tariff bill. These are significant facts.

Men, to secure entire satisfaction in style, fit and wear, at popular prices, call at C. H. BISS & SONS, Fashionable Tailors and Gent's Furnishers, 1343 and 1345 Market street.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth, Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. W. W. WILSON'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. W.W.W.

SENATOR WHITAKER

Nails a Register Lie About His Attitude Toward the West Liberty Normal School. Not a Shadow of Truth in the Story. The Register is in a desperate state of mind concerning the canvass of Mr. Pollock for the state senate when it is obliged to resort to the publication of falsehoods about Mr. Whitaker, the Republican candidate. Heretofore the Register has contented itself with making Mr. Whitaker a target for abuse and misrepresentation, but yesterday it outdid itself by giving place in its columns to a deliberate falsehood, which it emphasized with an editorial endorsement. The falsehood is uttered by a West Liberty correspondent who has not the courage to sign his name, but hides behind a nom de plume, signing himself "Alumnaus." He writes as follows:

I see by your papers recently several reasons why the citizens of Wheeling should not support Mr. Whitaker for the state senate this fall. It appears to me there is a reason why the citizens of this vicinity should not vote for him also. When the appropriation bill of the legislature came from the house to the senate, there was an item for $16,000 for a new normal school building at that place. This met considerable opposition in the senate, and Mr. Gall in his speech opposing it said that the senator from this county had said that this school was an injury to the county. How did Mr. Whitaker reply? Simply by saying that a private conversation should not be brought into a general debate. The friends of this school should, and no doubt will, see that the senator elected next November will not only vote, but that his private conversation will be such as will do this school no injury.

Nobody who knows Mr. Whitaker and his friendliness to the cause of education believed there was a word of truth in the absurd story. It was calculated, however, to prejudice the minds of those who are not well acquainted with the Republican candidate, and for the benefit of such the INTELLIGENCER interviewed him on the subject. When asked regarding the truth of the anonymous publication yesterday, Mr. Whitaker said:

"It is not only untrue that I opposed the appropriation for a new normal school building at West Liberty, but it is a fact that it was largely through my efforts that the appropriation was retained in the bill. The Register story is a fabrication from beginning to end. It will be remembered that in that legislature there was a Democratic attempt to reduce the rate of taxation for political effect only, and in order to afford an excuse for so doing there was a scaling down of appropriations, and the normal schools were selected as the chief victims. The West Liberty and Fairmont schools were especially marked. When I found that the West Liberty appropriation was cut off, I called Senator Tarr's attention to it and told him that we must save it if possible, as it affected our district. He agreed with me and together we worked against the scheme to turn down the appropriation."

"Being a Republican, I did not have a great deal of influence in the Democratic senate, but I made personal appeals to Democratic friends in behalf of the West Liberty and Fairmont appropriations, and was successful in getting enough votes to save the former, while the Fairmont people got pretty nearly all they asked for."

"As to my interruption of Senator Gall, referred to by the Register's anonymous correspondent, that occurred in this way: Mr. Gall was speaking on the appropriation and misquoted a remark I had made in private conversation. My remark had been that I favored liberal appropriations, but believed there should be limitations. This he misquoted in his speech and I called him down. That was all."

M. E. CHURCH DEDICATION

At Cameron—Eminent Ministers from Abroad Will Be Present. The new M. E. church at Cameron will be formally dedicated on Sunday, October 28, that being the last Sunday in this month.

The dedicatory sermon will be preached in the morning at 10:30 by the Rev. Dr. Payne, of New York City. Dr. Payne was formerly president of the Ohio Wesleyan university at Delaware, Ohio, and his reputation as a distinguished speaker and orator is too well known to need commendation.

The sermon in the evening of the same day and date will be preached by the Rev. Dr. A. B. Riker, of Fourth street M. E. church, Wheeling. Dr. Riker's popularity with the ministers of the West Virginia conference is without question.

The new building has a seating capacity sufficient to accommodate one thousand people, and ample provisions are being made to accommodate all ministers and laymen who may come from a distance.

A committee on reception will meet all ministers at the train and assign them to their places of entertainment.

SEATS FOR THE MELOPOMO CONCERT.

At 8 o'clock this morning seats will be placed on sale at C. A. House's music store for the first one of the six splendid concerts in the Young Men's Christian Association course. The opening concert will be given on Thursday evening by the Melopomo company. This galaxy of artists, which is headed by Mrs. Elsie Warron-Moehling, soprano, will give a fine concert.

"Spider and Fly."

All the resources of spectacle, pantomime, burlesque, opera, vaudeville, comedy, scenic art, costuming, electricity, science, mechanical devices and stage craft have been exhausted this year to render M. B. Leavitt's brilliant extravaganza, "Spider and Fly," the most magnificent production of the decade. Two sixty foot cars are required for the transportation of its numerous effects. The "Spider and Fly" is to be presented at the Opera House next Wednesday night.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

A SPECIAL meeting of council has been called for this evening.

GEORGE AUBREY'S brick residence on South Jacob street is nearly completed.

SIXTEEN cases were tried before Mayor Caldwell at police court yesterday morning, most of them being plain drunks.

THE boys have a new fad, that of throwing paper arrows at pedestrians. They are perfectly harmless provided they do not strike one in the eye.

THE following were in the cooler last night awaiting judgment for their offenses this morning: Wes Drake, drunk, arrested by Snyder; Max Tusef, common thief, by McNichol; Sam Hayden, drunk, by Herbert.

THE case of Nelson C. Vance, of Martin's Ferry, vs. J. C. Hoge, of Mt. Pleasant, for $10,000 damages is set for trial in the common pleas court of Belmont county on Saturday, October 27. Vance alleges that Hoge alienated his wife's affections.

TWO Wheeling produce men met in Martin's Ferry and their intense business rivalry resulted in an adjournment to the back yard when a bare knuckled argument followed. Both contestants are now in mourning.

THESE will be a full rehearsal for the principals and chorus of the "Pirates of Penzance" in the old Wheeling club rooms in the Rogers' block on Main street this evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full and prompt attendance is requested.

THIS morning Captain Pusley, owner of the ferryboat Ollie Noville, running between East Liverpool, Ohio, and the West Virginia side, will have a hearing before United States Commissioner Campbell, he being charged with employing unlicensed engineers.

LAST night Horace Culien, a Pittsburgh man, was in the saloon of the Goodfriend house, in the Upper Market square. He was refused a drink, and feeling retaliatory went outside and put a boulder through the big window. He was arrested and will appear in police court this morning.

GROUND was broken yesterday morning for the foundation of the Schmalzback Brewing Company's sixty-ton ice plant, located on the lot adjoining the company's fine stables. The contract for the brick work and other work will be let early next week, and the plant will be completed and in operation early next spring.

LATE last night screams were heard above the city water works, and the matter was reported to the police. Officers Haberfield and Snyder were sent up to investigate. They went aboard the Keystone State, laid up above water works, and were told by the chambermaid that some men had tried to enter her room, but had been frightened away by her screams.

Mrs. Annie Wright, Piedmont, Alabama.

They Said She Would Die

But Hood's Sarsaparilla Proved Its Merit. The following statement will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. Wright all over Alabama and Georgia. He was for ten years a locomotive engineer, and is now machinist for the Coosa Manufacturing Co.:

"I know the good there is in Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it has been proved in the case of my wife. In the summer of 1892, she was taken ill with malarial fever, which the physicians succeeded in breaking up. But then followed a severe illness like drowsy. She seemed to be growing worse every day, and our friends said 'She Would Surely Die.'"

I was induced to have her take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which was followed by the best results. She has now taken eight bottles and has used six boxes of Hood's Pills, and is in perfect health, as well and hearty as ever. We thank God for such a valuable medicine as Hood's Sarsaparilla." H. A. WRIGHT, Piedmont, Ala.
